

5
6
8

Kyle Bunting
of Kyle Bunting

product Amorphous
standout The Austin, Texas-based designer famed for reinventing the rustic hide rug does it again with an unusually shaped cut-hide stunner that can be customized to fit any need. kylebunting.com

Karl Fournier and Olivier Marty for Bisazza

product Marmo Modulo 3 Policromo Matt standout Ocher-hued Giallo Verona marble brightens black Nero Marquina and gray Bardiglio Nuvolato in the Studio KO founders' geometric floor and wall mosaic, supplied in ready-to-install paper-mesh-backed units. bisazza.com

Ghislaine Viñas
for The Rug Company

product Shongololo
standout The South Africa-raised interior designer was inspired by the creepy-crawly the wool-nylon rug is named for; the trippy pattern mimics both the millipede's outstretched and protectively curled-up forms. therugcompany.com

Elliott Barnes
for Tai Ping

product DTLA 1
standout Hand-tufted in combinations of wool, delicate silk, spun silk, and/or Lurex, the French-based American architect and decorator's atmospheric Overview series channels landscapes from his past. taipingcarpets.com